Re: Michael D. Peck on Behalf of Himself and All Homeowners
Adjacent to Lanier Golf Club f/k/a Canongate on Lanier Golf
Club v. Lanier Golf Club, Inc., File Number 07CV-2147

Dear Michael:

I recall that we discussed the due date for the decision by the Court of Appeals. I think I said that I thought the court may have a decision by next summer. However, I am revising this estimate based on what is known at the Court of Appeals as the "Two Term Rule." Under this rule, the decision is required to be made no later than the conclusion of the second term of the court.

The Court of Appeals has three terms: January, April and September. The end of the January Term is July 16th of that same year. The end of the April Term is December 1st of that same year. The end of the September Term is March 30th of the following year.

Our case was docketed in December of 2009 but it was assigned to the January Term. Therefore, I now estimate that a decision will be reached no later than December 1, 2010.

Sincerely,

Robert P. McFarland, Sr.
