Re: Arasom use of "Canongate on Lanier" trade name

Dear Bill:

The purpose of this letter is to summarize the numerous conversations we have had over the past several months about Patten Seed Company's agreement for Arasom, Inc. to use without charge the trade name "Canongate on Lanier" for the identification and promotion of Arasom's residential development located on approximately 200 acres adjacent to Patten's "Canongate on Lanier" golf course.

As Patten Seed Company's authorized representative, you have granted to Arasom permanent permission to record the final plats of the lots at the project as various phases of "Canongate on Lanier Estates".

In addition, you have agreed to allow Arasom the permanent right to promote the property by the use of signs, ads, letters, etc., as homes and homesites available at "Canongate on Lanier".

You have acknowledged the mutual benefits to Arasom and Patten Seed Company arising out of the development of the property and out of Arasom's use of the name "Canongate on Lanier".

Arasom has agreed to, at all times, inform all prospects, lot buyers, contractors, suppliers and any others associated with the project that the development is being carried out by Arasom, Inc. and that Arasom, Inc. is in no way affiliated with Patten Seed Company or the ownership or operation of the Canongate Golf Course.

Arasom further agrees to notify all such persons in writing that no membership or use rights of any kind whatsoever in the Canongate Golf Course are granted by virtue of the purchase of the subject property from Arasom, Inc.

Provided that you feel that the above provisions adequately reflect the agreement between Patten Seed Company and Arasom, Inc. on this subject,

Best Personal Regards,
